Holy Communion

Malcolm Ingham writes:

Lent will soon be upon us after the half term break. It is always a good time to use spiritually to prepare for Easter. Today we have the Good News Van with us at St. Andrew's so take a good browse through their excellent resources. You can also visit our online bookstore via the link on our web site home page and stock up with good material there. Don't forget all the events and services being run through Lent including a special film night in Holy Week and a mini pilgrimage with Bishop David.
